CURRENT LEGAL ISSUES

Seminar Series

The Bar Association of Queensland, University of Queensland, Queensland University of Technology and Supreme Court of Queensland Library are pleased to announce the Current Legal Issues Seminar Series for 2014.

The seminar series seeks to bring together leading scholars, practitioners and members of the judiciary in Queensland and from abroad to discuss key issues of contemporary legal significance.

Seminar 1	The 'Objective' Approach to Statutory Interpretation - Views From Abroad
Date:	Thursday 8 May 2014
Co-Presenters:	The Hon. Dyson Heydon AC QC Professor Stefan Vogenauer, Linklaters Professor of Comparative Law, University of Oxford
Chair:	Professor Bill Lane, Queensland University of Technology
Abstract:	Australian law has recently seen a vivid debate about 'subjective' and 'objective' approaches to statutory interpretation. The roles of 'legislative intent', 'purpose', text and context have been discussed and assessed afresh. Apart from the occasional glance at English case law, not much attention has been paid to how other jurisdictions approach the issue. This seminar will give a brief overview of how civil law systems and English lawyers frame the problem and resolve the tensions between the different approaches.

Seminar 2	The Right to Silence: Implications from the X7 Case
Date:	Thursday 17 July 2014
Presenter:	Peter Davis QC, President, Bar Association of Queensland
Commentator:	Tony Moynihan QC, Director of Public Prosecutions, Queensland
Chair:	Professor Heather Douglas, University of Queensland

Commentator:	Declan Kelly QC, Barrister-at-Law, Queensland
Chair:	Prof Bill Duncan, Queensland University of Technology

Seminar 4	ALJA Oration: The Jackson Reforms and Civil Justice
